

Aotearoa New Zealand Association for Biblical Studies Second Conference
2-3 Dec 1999, Knox College, Dunedin

Programme

Thursday 2 December

- 9.00 am Welcome and Introductions
9.30 Tim Meadowcroft: Exploring the Dismal Swamp: the identity of the anointed one in Dn 9: 24-27
10.30 Morning Tea
11.00 Stephen Pattermore: The People of God in the Apocalypse: some insights from relevance theory
12.00 Peter Carrell: Angelomorphic christology in the New Testament
12.30 Lunch
1.30 Derek Tovey: Typology of the Gospel Genre in the Light of Ancient Narrative Genres
2.30 Margaret Eaton: "Listen to me, my lord": expressions of politeness in the Hebrew Bible
3.30 Afternoon Tea
4.00 Tim Bulkeley: Adonai's Day and the structuring of the book of Amos

Friday December 3rd

- 9.00 ANZABS General Meeting
9.30 Howard Pilgrim: 1 Corinthians 8:6 ... Pre-Packaged, or Freshly Baked?
10.30 Morning Tea
11.00 Gillian Philps-Townsley: Hypothetical Argument or Actual Behaviour? the significance of the men in the argument of 1 Cor 11: 2-16
12.00 Bob Robinson: Religion in the Bible: are there two complementary streams of material, one positive and one negative?
12.30 Lunch
1.30 Jim Veitch: The Jesus Seminar: what it is and what it isn't
2.30 Edmund Little: Reflexions on the miracle at Cana and the feeding of the five thousand in John's gospel
3.00 Mary Huie-Jolly: To honour the son as God - John 5 in dialogue: selected Maori interpretations of scripture
3.30 Afternoon Tea
4.00 Greg Dawes: David Friedrich Strauss and the Question of Miracles
5.00 End